

A 2024 Girl Scout Gold Award project: meet-the-greens.org

EMPATHY PACKET

Emergent Readers Script for 3	p. 2-4
Emergent Readers Script for 5	p. 5-7
Emergent Readers Script for 6	p. 8-10
Advanced Readers Script for 3	p. 11-13
Advanced Readers Script for 5	p. 14-16
Advanced Readers Script for 6	p. 17-19
Activity Sheet	p. 20

MEET THE GREENS: Empathy!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 3 Students

Parts:

AUNTIE GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

Reading the Play:

KID 1: What will we make today?

KID 2: I don't know!

KID 1: I hope we paint!

KID 2: I hope we get the markers!

KID 1: I love the art room.

AUNTIE GREEN: Me too!

KID 2: Hey! Who are you?

AUNTIE GREEN: I am Auntie Green. I LOVE art!

KID 1: You can sit with us!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you! I will.

KID 2: Do you like markers?

AUNTIE GREEN: I like to use the scissors!

KID 1: I can't wait!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you for showing empathy to me!

KID 2: What is empathy?

KID 1: How can we show it, if we don't know what it is?

AUNTIE GREEN: Empathy means: You think about how someone is feeling!

KID 2: How did we show empathy?

AUNTIE GREEN: You saw that I was alone. You asked me to sit with you.

KID 1: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: You heard I love art. You asked me if I liked markers.

KID 2: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: That is empathy!

KID 1: So, empathy is a good thing?

KID 2: Yes! Empathy made you feel good!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes! Empathy made me feel good. It is GOOD when others think about how you feel.

KID 1: I did a good thing, and I did not even know it!

KID 2: Today is a good day!

AUNTIE GREEN: If you think about how others feel, every day is a good day!

KID 1: Sometimes I do not think about others.

KID 2: Sometimes I just think about myself.

KID 1: But I feel good, when others think about ME.

KID 2: Me too!

AUNTIE GREEN: We all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 1: It is hard to show empathy when someone is mean.

KID 2: It is hard to show empathy when someone breaks the rules.

AUNTIE GREEN: Even when it is hard, we all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 1: Hey! The teacher is passing out paints!

KID 2: And markers!

AUNTIE GREEN: And scissors!

KID 1: Today IS a good day!

KID 2: I love art!

AUNTIE GREEN: I can't wait to see what you make!

KID 1: I can't wait to see what YOU make!

KID 2: Thank you for making art with us, Auntie Green!

KID 1: And for teaching us about empathy.

KID 2: It is good to learn new things!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes. It is good to learn new things! And it is good to make art together!

MEET THE GREENS: Empathy!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 5 Students

Parts:

AUNTIE GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

KID 1: What will we make today?

KID 2: I don't know!

KID 3: I hope we paint!

KID 4: I hope we get the markers!

KID 1: I love the art room.

AUNTIE GREEN: Me too!

KID 2: Hey! Who are you?

AUNTIE GREEN: I am Auntie Green. I LOVE art!

KID 3: You can sit with us!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you! I will.

KID 4: Do you like markers?

AUNTIE GREEN: I like to use the scissors!

KID 1: I can't wait!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you for showing empathy to me!

KID 2: What is empathy?

KID 3: How can we show it, if we don't know what it is?

AUNTIE GREEN: Empathy means: You think about how someone is feeling!

KID 4: How did we show empathy?

AUNTIE GREEN: You saw that I was alone. You asked me to sit with you.

KID 3: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: You heard I love art. You asked me if I liked markers.

KID 4: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: That is empathy!

KID 1: So, empathy is a good thing?

KID 2: Yes! Empathy made you feel good!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes! Empathy made me feel good. It is GOOD when others think about how you feel.

KID 3: I did a good thing, and I did not even know it!

KID 4: Today is a good day!

AUNTIE GREEN: If you think about how others feel, every day is a good day!

KID 1: Sometimes I do not think about others.

KID 2: Sometimes I just think about myself.

KID 3: But I feel good, when others think about ME.

KID 4: Me too!

AUNTIE GREEN: We all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 1: It is hard to show empathy when someone is mean.

KID 2: It is hard to show empathy when someone breaks the rules.

AUNTIE GREEN: Even when it is hard, we all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 3: Hey! The teacher is passing out paints!

KID 4: And markers!

AUNTIE GREEN: And scissors!

KID 1: Today IS a good day!

KID 2: I love art!

AUNTIE GREEN: I can't wait to see what you make!

KID 3: I can't wait to see what YOU make!

KID 4: Thank you for making art with us, Auntie Green!

KID 1: And for teaching us about empathy.

KID 2: It is good to learn new things!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes. It is good to learn new things! And it is good to make art together!

MEET THE GREENS: Empathy!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 6 Students

Parts:

AUNTIE GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

KID 5

Reading the Play:

KID 1: What will we make today?

KID 2: I don't know!

KID 3: I hope we paint!

KID 4: I hope we get the markers!

KID 5: I hope we get crayons!

KID 1: I love the art room.

AUNTIE GREEN: Me too!

KID 2: Hey! Who are you?

AUNTIE GREEN: I am Auntie Green. I LOVE art!

KID 3: You can sit with us!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you! I will.

KID 4: Do you like markers?

AUNTIE GREEN: I like to use the scissors!

KID 5: Me too!

KID 1: I can't wait!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you for showing empathy to me!

KID 2: What is empathy?

KID 3: How can we show it, if we don't know what it is?

AUNTIE GREEN: Empathy means: You think about how someone is feeling!

KID 4: How did we show empathy?

AUNTIE GREEN: You saw that I was alone. You asked me to sit with you.

KID 3: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: You heard I love art. You asked me if I liked markers.

KID 4: Hey! I did do that!

KID 5: Yes. You did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: That is empathy!

KID 1: So, empathy is a good thing?

KID 2: Yes! Empathy made you feel good!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes! Empathy made me feel good. It is GOOD when others think about how you feel.

KID 3: I did a good thing, and I did not even know it!

KID 4: Today is a good day!

KID 5: I like to think about how others feel.

AUNTIE GREEN: If you think about how others feel, every day is a good day!

KID 1: Sometimes I do not think about others.

KID 2: Sometimes I just think about myself.

KID 3: But I feel good, when others think about ME.

KID 4: Me too!

AUNTIE GREEN: We all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 5: It is hard to show empathy when someone is mean.

KID 2: It is hard to show empathy when someone breaks the rules.

AUNTIE GREEN: Even when it is hard, we all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 3: Hey! The teacher is passing out paints!

KID 4: And markers!

AUNTIE GREEN: And scissors!

KID 1: Today IS a good day!

KID 2: I love art!

AUNTIE GREEN: I can't wait to see what you make!

KID 3: I can't wait to see what YOU make!

KID 4: Thank you for making art with us, Auntie Green!

KID 5: And for teaching us about empathy.

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes. It is good to learn new things! And it is good to make art together!

MEET THE GREENS: Empathy!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 3 Students

Parts:

AUNTIE GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

Reading the Play:

KID 1: I am so excited! What art will we make today?

KID 2: I don't know!

KID 1: I hope we paint! I love the paints!

KID 2: I hope we get the markers! I love to draw with markers.

KID 1: I love the art room. I like to see what other people make.

AUNTIE GREEN: Me too!

KID 2: Hey! Who are you?

AUNTIE GREEN: I am Auntie Green. I LOVE art!

KID 1: Well, you are in the right place. You can sit with us!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you! I will.

KID 2: Do you like painting or drawing with markers?

AUNTIE GREEN: I like to use the scissors!

KID 1: Me too! I can't wait to see what we work on today.

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you for showing empathy to me!

KID 2: What is empathy?

KID 1: How can we show it, if we don't know what it is?

AUNTIE GREEN: Empathy means: You think about how someone else is feeling!

KID 2: How did we show empathy?

AUNTIE GREEN: You saw that I was alone. You asked me to sit with you.

KID 1: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: You heard I love art. You asked me if I liked painting or drawing.

KID 2: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: That is empathy! Every time you think about someone else, and how they are feeling, you have the chance to show some empathy!

KID 1: So, empathy is a good thing?

KID 2: Yes! Empathy made you feel good!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes! Empathy made me feel good. It is GOOD when others think about how you feel.

KID 1: I did a good thing, and I did not even know it!

KID 2: Today is a good day!

AUNTIE GREEN: If you think about how others feel, every day is a good day!

KID 1: Sometimes I do not think about others.

KID 2: Sometimes I just think about myself.

KID 1: But I feel good, when other people think about ME and my feelings.

KID 2: Me too!

AUNTIE GREEN: We all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 1: It is hard to show empathy when someone is mean.

KID 2: It is hard to show empathy when someone breaks the rules.

AUNTIE GREEN: Even when it is hard, we all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 1: Hey! The teacher is passing out paints!

KID 2: And markers!

AUNTIE GREEN: And scissors!

KID 1: Today IS a good day!

KID 2: I love art! I can't wait to get to work.

AUNTIE GREEN: I can't wait to see what you make!

KID 1: I can't wait to see what YOU make!

KID 2: Thank you for making art with us, Auntie Green!

KID 1: And for teaching us about empathy.

KID 2: It is good to learn new things!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes. It is good to learn new things! And it is good to make art together!

MEET THE GREENS: Empathy!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 5 Students

Parts:

AUNTIE GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

KID 1: I am so excited! What art will we make today?

KID 2: I don't know!

KID 3: I hope we paint! I love the paints!

KID 4: I hope we get the markers! I love to draw with markers.

KID 1: I love the art room. I like to see what other people make.

AUNTIE GREEN: Me too!

KID 2: Hey! Who are you?

AUNTIE GREEN: I am Auntie Green. I LOVE art!

KID 3: Well, you are in the right place. You can sit with us!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you! I will.

KID 4: Do you like painting or drawing with markers?

AUNTIE GREEN: I like to use the scissors!

KID 1: Me too! I can't wait to see what we work on today.

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you for showing empathy to me!

KID 2: What is empathy?

KID 3: How can we show it, if we don't know what it is?

AUNTIE GREEN: Empathy means: You think about how someone else is feeling!

KID 4: How did we show empathy?

AUNTIE GREEN: You saw that I was alone. You asked me to sit with you.

KID 3: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: You heard I love art. You asked me if I liked painting or drawing.

KID 4: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: That is empathy! Every time you think about someone else, and how they are feeling, you have the chance to show some empathy!

KID 1: So, empathy is a good thing?

KID 2: Yes! Empathy made you feel good!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes! Empathy made me feel good. It is GOOD when others think about how you feel.

KID 3: I did a good thing, and I did not even know it!

KID 4: Today is a good day!

AUNTIE GREEN: If you think about how others feel, every day is a good day!

KID 1: Sometimes I do not think about others.

KID 2: Sometimes I just think about myself.

KID 1: But I feel good, when other people think about ME and my feelings.

KID 2: Me too!

AUNTIE GREEN: We all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 3: It is hard to show empathy when someone is mean.

KID 4: It is hard to show empathy when someone breaks the rules.

AUNTIE GREEN: Even when it is hard, we all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 1: Hey! The teacher is passing out paints!

KID 2: And markers!

AUNTIE GREEN: And scissors!

KID 3: Today IS a good day!

KID 4: I love art! I can't wait to get to work.

AUNTIE GREEN: I can't wait to see what you make!

KID 1: I can't wait to see what YOU make!

KID 2: Thank you for making art with us, Auntie Green!

KID 3: And for teaching us about empathy.

KID 4: It is good to learn new things!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes. It is good to learn new things! And it is good to make art together!

MEET THE GREENS: Empathy!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 6 Students

Parts:

AUNTIE GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

KID 5

Reading the Play:

KID 1: I am so excited! What art will we make today?

KID 2: I don't know!

KID 3: I hope we paint! I love the paints!

KID 4: I hope we get the markers! I love to draw with markers.

KID 5: I love the crayons!

KID 1: I love the art room. I like to see what other people make.

AUNTIE GREEN: Me too!

KID 2: Hey! Who are you?

AUNTIE GREEN: I am Auntie Green. I LOVE art!

KID 3: Well, you are in the right place. You can sit with us!

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you! I will.

KID 4: Do you like painting or drawing with markers?

KID 5: Do you like crayons?

AUNTIE GREEN: I like to use the scissors!

KID 1: Me too! I can't wait to see what we work on today.

AUNTIE GREEN: Thank you for showing empathy to me!

KID 2: What is empathy?

KID 3: How can we show it, if we don't know what it is?

AUNTIE GREEN: Empathy means: You think about how someone else is feeling!

KID 4: How did we show empathy?

AUNTIE GREEN: You saw that I was alone. You asked me to sit with you.

KID 3: Hey! I did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: You heard I love art. You asked me if I liked markers or crayons.

KID 4 and KID 5: Hey! We did do that!

AUNTIE GREEN: That is empathy! Every time you think about someone else, and how they are feeling, you have the chance to show some empathy!

KID 1: So, empathy is a good thing?

KID 2: Yes! Empathy made you feel good!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes! Empathy made me feel good. It is GOOD when others think about how you feel.

KID 3: I did a good thing, and I did not even know it!

KID 4: Today is a good day!

AUNTIE GREEN: If you think about how others feel, every day is a good day!

KID 1: Sometimes I do not think about others.

KID 2: Sometimes I just think about myself.

KID 5: But I feel good, when other people think about ME and my feelings.

ALL THE KIDS: Me too!

AUNTIE GREEN: We all need to show empathy. Every day, to every one.

KID 3: It is hard to show empathy when someone is mean.

KID 4: It is hard to show empathy when someone breaks the rules.

AUNTIE GREEN: Even when it is hard, we all need to show empathy.

KID 1: Hey! The teacher is passing out paints!

KID 2: And markers!

AUNTIE GREEN: And scissors!

KID 3: Today IS a good day!

KID 4: I love art! I can't wait to get to work.

KID 5: I am feeling creative!

AUNTIE GREEN: I can't wait to see what you make!

KID 1: I can't wait to see what YOU make!

KID 2: Thank you for making art with us, Auntie Green!

KID 3: And for teaching us about empathy.

KID 4: It is good to learn new things!

KID 5: And it is good to make new friends!

AUNTIE GREEN: Yes. We are new friends making new art together!

Meet the Greens: EMPATHY

If you notice how others feel, then it is easy to show empathy.
In the box, write how the student is feeling. Then, circle a student to write more about.

He lost his backpack. How does he feel?

--

She is new in class. How does she feel?

--

She just lost the race. How does she feel?

--

He stayed up too late. How does he feel?

--

How I would show empathy to this student : _____

My name is : _____