

A 2024 Girl Scout Gold Award project: meet-the-greens.org

POLITENESS PACKET

Emergent Readers Script for 3	p. 2-4
Emergent Readers Script for 5	p. 5-7
Emergent Readers Script for 6	p. 8-10
Advanced Readers Script for 3	p. 11-13
Advanced Readers Script for 5	p. 14-16
Advanced Readers Script for 6	p. 17-19
Activity Sheet	p. 20

MEET THE GREENS: Politeness!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 3 Students

---

Parts:

MS. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (in the principal's office) It is so quiet here!

KID 2: (looking around) Why are we here?

KID 1: I don't know!

KID 2: Maybe we are in trouble!

KID 1: No.

KID 2: Maybe we will get a treat!

KID 1: Maybe?

MS. GREEN: (entering) Hello! How are you today?

KID 1: Hello! You are a Green!

MS. GREEN: Yes! I am Ms. Green.

KID 2: We are well. But why are YOU here?

KID 1: Why are WE here?

MS. GREEN: The principal needs help!

KID 1: How can we help?

KID 2: We like to help. But how?

MS. GREEN: You are very polite. Politeness means putting others first. You can help others be polite, too.

KID 1: My dad says it is important to be polite!

KID 2: My sister waits for me after school!

KID 1: I listen when other people talk!

KID 2: I never cut in line!

MS. GREEN: Those are ALL good ways to be polite.

KID 1: How can we help others?

KID 2: How do we teach others to be polite?

MS. GREEN: Well – others learn by watching. If you are polite, others see that!

KID 1: Yes. I will try hard to be polite!

KID 2: Me too!

MS. GREEN: Also, others learn by practicing. If you see politeness, thank your friend for being polite.

KID 1: (looks at other kid) You held the door for me! That was polite. Thank you for holding the door for me, friend!

KID 2: You are welcome, friend!

MS. GREEN: Last, others learn by hearing why politeness is important. The principal wants you to tell your friends why politeness is important.

KID 1: Because you think about others!

KID 2: Because I feel good, when I am polite!

KID 1: Because we are ALL happy, when we are polite!

KID 2: Because we all get along, when we are polite!

MS. GREEN: It is good to be polite.

KID 1: My family likes it when we are polite.

KID 2: So does mine!

MS. GREEN: So do all the Greens!

KID 1: Thank you for talking to us today

KID 2: That was very polite to say! (kids high-five each other)

MS. GREEN: You are welcome!

KID 1: We will help the principal.

KID 2: We will help our friends be polite!

MS. GREEN: Politeness helps everyone become better friends!

MEET THE GREENS: Politeness!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 5 Students

---

Parts:

MS. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (in the principal's office) It is so quiet here!

KID 2: (looking around) Why are we here?

KID 3: I don't know!

KID 4: Maybe we are in trouble!

KID 1: No.

KID 2: Maybe we will get a treat!

KID 3: Maybe?

MS. GREEN: (entering) Hello! How are you today?

KID 4: Hello! You are a Green!

MS. GREEN: Yes! I am Ms. Green.

KID 2: We are well. But why are YOU here?

KID 1: Why are WE here?

MS. GREEN: The principal needs help!

KID 3: How can we help?

KID 4: We like to help. But how?

MS. GREEN: You are very polite. Politeness means putting others first. You can help others be polite, too.

KID 1: My dad says it is important to be polite!

KID 2: My sister waits for me after school!

KID 3: I listen when other people talk!

KID 4: I never cut in line!

MS. GREEN: Those are ALL good ways to be polite.

KID 1: How can we help others?

KID 2: How do we teach others to be polite?

MS. GREEN: Well – others learn by watching. If you are polite, others see that!

KID 3: Yes. I will try hard to be polite!

KID 4: Me too!

MS. GREEN: Also, others learn by practicing. If you see politeness, thank your friend for being polite.

KID 1: (looks at other kid) You held the door for me! That was polite. Thank you for holding the door for me, friend!

KID 2: You are welcome, friend!

MS. GREEN: Last, others learn by hearing why politeness is important. The principal wants you to tell your friends why politeness is important.

KID 3: Because you think about others!

KID 4: Because I feel good, when I am polite!

KID 1: Because we are ALL happy, when we are polite!

KID 2: Because we all get along, when we are polite!

MS. GREEN: It is good to be polite.

KID 3: My family likes it when we are polite.

KID 4: So does mine!

MS. GREEN: So do all the Greens!

KID 1: Thank you for talking to us today

KID 2: That was very polite to say! (kids all high-five each other)

MS. GREEN: You are welcome!

KID 3: We will help the principal.

KID 4: We will help our friends be polite!

MS. GREEN: Politeness helps everyone become better friends!

MEET THE GREENS: Politeness!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 6 Students

---

Parts:

MS. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

KID 5

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (in the principal's office) It is so quiet here!

KID 2: (looking around) Why are we here?

KID 3: I don't know!

KID 4: Maybe we are in trouble!

KID 5: I hope not!

KID 1: No.

KID 2: Maybe we will get a treat!

KID 3: Maybe?

MS. GREEN: (entering) Hello! How are you today?

KID 4: Hello! You are a Green!

KID 5: We know your family!

MS. GREEN: Yes! I am Ms. Green.

KID 2: We are well. But why are YOU here?

KID 1: Why are WE here?

MS. GREEN: The principal needs help!

KID 3: How can we help?

KID 4: We like to help.

KID 5: But how can we help?

MS. GREEN: You are very polite. Politeness means putting others first. You can help others be polite, too.

KID 1: My dad says it is important to be polite!

KID 2: My sister waits for me after school!

KID 3: I listen when other people talk!

KID 4: I never cut in line!

KID 5: I raise my hand in class!

MS. GREEN: Those are ALL good ways to be polite.

KID 1: How can we help others?

KID 2: How do we teach others to be polite?

MS. GREEN: Well – others learn by watching. If you are polite, others see that!

KID 3: Yes. I will try hard to be polite!

KID 4: Me too!

KID 5: Me too!

MS. GREEN: Also, others learn by practicing. If you see politeness, thank your friend for being polite.

KID 1: (looks at other kid) You held the door for me! That was polite. Thank you for holding the door for me, friend!

KID 2: You are welcome, friend!

MS. GREEN: Last, others learn by hearing why politeness is important. The principal wants you to tell your friends why politeness is important.

KID 3: Because you think about others!

KID 4: Because I feel good, when I am polite!

KID 5: Because your friend feels good, when you are polite!

KID 1: Because we are ALL happy, when we are polite!

KID 2: Because we all get along, when we are polite!

MS. GREEN: It is good to be polite.

KID 3: My family likes it when we are polite.

KID 4: So does mine!

MS. GREEN: So do all the Greens!

KID 1: Thank you for talking to us today

KID 2: That was very polite to say! (kids all high-five each other)

MS. GREEN: You are welcome!

KID 3: We will help the principal. And we will help our friends!

MS. GREEN: Politeness helps everyone become better friends!

MEET THE GREENS: Politeness!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 3 Students

---

Parts:

MS. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (in the principal's office) It is so quiet, here in the office!

KID 2: (looking around) Why do you think we are here?

KID 1: I don't know!

KID 2: Maybe we are in trouble!

KID 1: I hope we are not in trouble!

KID 2: Maybe we will get a treat!

KID 1: I do hope we get a treat! (rubs tummy)

MS. GREEN: (entering) Hello! How are you today?

KID 1: Hello! You are a Green!

MS. GREEN: Yes! I am Ms. Green.

KID 2: We are well. But why are YOU here?

KID 1: Why are WE here?

MS. GREEN: The principal needs your help today!

KID 1: How can we help the principal?

KID 2: We like to help. But how?

MS. GREEN: You are very polite. Politeness means putting others first. You can help others be polite, too.

KID 1: My dad says it is important to be polite!

KID 2: My sister waits for me after school!

KID 1: I listen when other people talk!

KID 2: I never cut in line!

MS. GREEN: Those are ALL very good ways to be polite.

KID 1: How can we help others?

KID 2: How do we teach others to be polite?

MS. GREEN: Well – others learn by watching. If you are polite, others see that!

KID 1: Yes. I will try hard to be polite, so others will see that!

KID 2: I will try hard, too!

MS. GREEN: Also, others learn by practicing. If you see your friend practicing being polite, thank your friend!

KID 1: (looks at other kid) You held the door for me this morning! That was polite. Thank you for holding the door for me, friend!

KID 2: You are welcome, friend!

MS. GREEN: Last, others learn by hearing why politeness is important. The principal wants you to tell your friends why politeness is important.

KID 1: Politeness is important because you think about others!

KID 2: Because I feel good, when I am polite!

KID 1: Because we are ALL happy, when we are polite!

KID 2: Because we all get along, when we are polite!

MS. GREEN: It is always good to be polite.

KID 1: My family likes it when we are polite.

KID 2: So does mine!

MS. GREEN: So do all the Greens!

KID 1: Thank you for talking to us about politeness today.

KID 2: That was very polite to say! (kids high-five each other)

MS. GREEN: You are welcome!

KID 1: We will help the principal.

KID 2: We will help our friends be polite!

MS. GREEN: Politeness helps everyone become better friends!

MEET THE GREENS: Politeness!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 5 Students

---

Parts:

MS. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (in the principal's office) It is so quiet, here in the office!

KID 2: (looking around) Why do you think we are here?

KID 3: I don't know!

KID 4: Maybe we are in trouble!

KID 1: I hope we are not in trouble!

KID 2: Maybe we will get a treat!

KID 3: I do hope we get a treat! (rubs tummy)

MS. GREEN: (entering) Hello! How are you today?

KID 4: Hello! You are a Green!

MS. GREEN: Yes! I am Ms. Green.

KID 2: We are well. But why are YOU here?

KID 1: Why are WE here?

MS. GREEN: The principal needs your help today!

KID 3: How can we help the principal?

KID 4: We like to help. But how?

MS. GREEN: You are very polite. Politeness means putting others first. You can help others be polite, too.

KID 1: My dad says it is important to be polite!

KID 2: My sister waits for me after school!

KID 3: I listen when other people talk!

KID 4: I never cut in line!

MS. GREEN: Those are ALL very good ways to be polite.

KID 1: How can we help others?

KID 2: How do we teach others to be polite?

MS. GREEN: Well – others learn by watching. If you are polite, others see that!

KID 3: Yes. I will try hard to be polite, so others will see that!

KID 4: I will try hard, too!

MS. GREEN: Also, others learn by practicing. If you see your friend practicing being polite, thank your friend!

KID 1: (looks at other kid) You held the door for me this morning! That was polite. Thank you for holding the door for me, friend!

KID 2: You are welcome, friend!

MS. GREEN: Last, others learn by hearing why politeness is important. The principal wants you to tell your friends why politeness is important.

KID 3: Politeness is important because you think about others!

KID 4: Because I feel good, when I am polite!

KID 1: Because we are ALL happy, when we are polite!

KID 2: Because we all get along, when we are polite!

MS. GREEN: It is always good to be polite.

KID 3: My family likes it when we are polite.

KID 4: So does mine!

MS. GREEN: So do all the Greens!

KID 1: Thank you for talking to us about politeness today.

KID 2: That was very polite to say! (kids all high-five each other)

MS. GREEN: You are welcome!

KID 3: We will help the principal.

KID 4: We will help our friends be polite!

MS. GREEN: Politeness helps everyone become better friends!

MEET THE GREENS: Politeness!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 6 Students

---

Parts:

MS. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

KID 5

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (in the principal's office) It is so quiet, here in the office!

KID 2: (looking around) Why do you think we are here?

KID 3: I don't know!

KID 4: Maybe we are in trouble!

KID 5: I do not think so?

KID 1: I hope we are not in trouble!

KID 2: Maybe we will get a treat!

KID 3: I do hope we get a treat! (rubs tummy)

MS. GREEN: (entering) Hello! How are you today?

KID 4: Hello! You are a Green!

KID 5: We know your family!

MS. GREEN: Yes! I am Ms. Green.

KID 2: We are well. But why are YOU here?

KID 1: Why are WE here?

MS. GREEN: The principal needs your help today!

KID 3: How can we help the principal?

KID 4: We like to help. But how?

KID 5: What can we do?

MS. GREEN: You are very polite. Politeness means putting others first. You can help others be polite, too.

KID 1: My dad says it is important to be polite!

KID 2: My sister waits for me after school!

KID 3: I listen when other people talk!

KID 4: I never cut in line!

KID 5: I raise my hand in class!

MS. GREEN: Those are ALL very good ways to be polite.

KID 1: How can we help others?

KID 2: How do we teach others to be polite?

MS. GREEN: Well – others learn by watching. If you are polite, others see that!

KID 3: Yes. I will try hard to be polite, so others will see that!

KID 4: I will try hard, too!

KID 5: So will I!

MS. GREEN: Also, others learn by practicing. If you see your friend practicing being polite, thank your friend!

KID 1: (looks at other kid) You held the door for me this morning! That was polite. Thank you for holding the door for me, friend!

KID 2: You are welcome, friend!

MS. GREEN: Last, others learn by hearing why politeness is important. The principal wants you to tell your friends why politeness is important.

KID 3: Politeness is important because you think about others!

KID 4: Because I feel good, when I am polite!

KID 5: Because your friend feels good, when you are polite!

KID 1: Because we are ALL happy, when we are polite!

KID 2: Because we all get along, when we are polite!

MS. GREEN: It is always good to be polite.

KID 3: My family likes it when we are polite.

KID 4: So does mine!

MS. GREEN: So do all the Greens!

KID 1: Thank you for talking to us about politeness today.

KID 2: That was very polite to say! (kids all high-five each other)

MS. GREEN: You are welcome!

ALL THE KIDS: We will help the principal. And we will help our friends!

MS. GREEN: Politeness helps everyone become better friends!

Meet the Greens: POLITENESS!

Color each of these Greens! Then list how the Greens and you can be polite every day!

It is polite to: _____

_____

_____

_____

My name is : _____