

A 2024 Girl Scout Gold Award project: meet-the-greens.org

RESPECT PACKET

Emergent Readers Script for 3	p. 2-4
Emergent Readers Script for 5	p. 5-7
Emergent Readers Script for 6	p. 8-10
Advanced Readers Script for 3	p. 11-13
Advanced Readers Script for 5	p. 14-16
Advanced Readers Script for 6	p. 17-19
Activity Sheet	p. 20

MEET THE GREENS: Respect!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 3 Students

Parts:

MR. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (bouncing up and down in seat) I am so happy!

KID 2: (bouncing too) Me too!

KID 1: Today is a good day!

KID 2: I love riding the bus!

KID 1: I love going to the park!

KID 2: We will be at the park soon!

MR. GREEN: (pops up from bus seat in front) I can't WAIT to go to the park!

KID 1: Hey! You are a Green!

MR. GREEN: Yes! I am Mr. Green.

KID 2: Will you go to the park with us?

MR. GREEN: Yes! I will!

KID 1: That is good! We can swing on the swings!

KID 2: I hope no kids are on the swings!

MR. GREEN: It is good that kids swing on the swings! We can wait.

KID 1: I hate waiting!

KID 2: I hate waiting, too!

MR. GREEN: It is good to show respect. Waiting our turn shows we respect others.

KID 1: I am glad when others wait for me.

KID 2: I do not like it, when others do NOT wait.

MR. GREEN: When we all show respect, we are all happier.

KID 1: How do we respect each other?

KID 2: I do not know!

MR. GREEN: We show respect in different ways, to different people.

KID 1: I respect my sister, by not messing with her stuff.

KID 2: I get it! I respect my teacher, by listening.

MR. GREEN: Yes! Showing respect means you think about the feelings of others.

KID 1: I like it when others think about me.

KID 2: I like it when others think about me, too.

MR. GREEN: When we respect others, others learn to show respect, too.

KID 1: Yes! We waited our turn in the lunch line -

KID 2: And the next class saw us waiting. And they waited behind us!

MR. GREEN: Yes! That is showing respect. Respect is good!

KID 1: There are no fights, when we respect each other.

KID 2: It can be hard to show respect.

MR. GREEN: Yes, it can be hard. When others don't respect you - you may feel upset.

KID 1: I get mad when others cut in line.

KID 2: I get mad when others are mean.

MR. GREEN: Yes. It feels bad, when you are not shown respect. Everyone deserves respect.

KID 1: Maybe we can help others show respect.

KID 2: Yes! That is good! We can help!

MR. GREEN: Every time you show respect, you are teaching others.

KID 1: Hey! The bus is stopping!

KID 2: We are at the park!

MR. GREEN: This will be a fun day!

KID 1: Let's go to the swings!

KID 2: We will show respect, and wait, if others are swinging!

MR. GREEN: You are doing the right thing! Show respect to everyone!

KID 1: We will! Thank you, Mr. Green!

KID 2: Yes, thank you Mr. Green! This will be a fun day!

MEET THE GREENS: Respect!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 5 Students

Parts:

MR. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (bouncing up and down in seat) I am so happy!

KID 2: (bouncing too) Me too!

KID 3: (bouncing too) Today is a good day!

KID 4: (bouncing too) I love riding the bus!

KID 1: I love going to the park!

KID 2: We will be at the park soon!

MR. GREEN: (pops up from bus seat in front) I can't WAIT to go to the park!

KID 3: Hey! You are a Green!

MR. GREEN: Yes! I am Mr. Green.

KID 4: Will you go to the park with us?

MR. GREEN: Yes! I will!

KID 1: That is good! We can swing on the swings!

KID 2: I hope no kids are on the swings!

MR. GREEN: It is good that kids swing on the swings! We can wait.

KID 3: I hate waiting!

KID 4: I hate waiting, too!

MR. GREEN: It is good to show respect. Waiting our turn shows we respect others.

KID 1: I am glad when others wait for me.

KID 2: I do not like it, when others do NOT wait.

MR. GREEN: When we all show respect, we are all happier.

KID 3: How do we respect each other?

KID 4: I do not know!

MR. GREEN: We show respect in different ways, to different people.

KID 1: I respect my sister, by not messing with her stuff.

KID 2: I get it! I respect my teacher, by listening.

MR. GREEN: Yes! Showing respect means you think about the feelings of others.

KID 3: I like it when others think about me.

KID 4: I like it when others think about me, too.

MR. GREEN: When we respect others, others learn to show respect, too.

KID 1: Yes! We waited our turn in the lunch line -

KID 2: And the next class saw us waiting. And they waited behind us!

MR. GREEN: Yes! That is showing respect. Respect is good!

KID 3: There are no fights, when we respect each other.

KID 4: It can be hard to show respect.

MR. GREEN: Yes, it can be hard. When others don't respect you - you may feel upset.

KID 1: I get mad when others cut in line.

KID 2: I get mad when others are mean.

MR. GREEN: Yes. It feels bad, when you are not shown respect. Everyone deserves respect.

KID 3: Maybe we can help others show respect.

KID 4: Yes! That is good! We can help!

MR. GREEN: Every time you show respect, you are teaching others.

KID 1: Hey! The bus is stopping!

KID 2: We are at the park!

MR. GREEN: This will be a fun day!

KID 3: Let's go to the swings!

KID 4: We will show respect, and wait, if others are swinging!

MR. GREEN: You are doing the right thing! Show respect to everyone!

KID 1: We will! Thank you, Mr. Green!

KID 2: Yes, thank you Mr. Green! This will be a fun day!

MEET THE GREENS: Respect!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 6 Students

Parts:

MR. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

KID 5

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (bouncing up and down in seat) I am so happy!

KID 2: (bouncing too) Me too!

KID 3: (bouncing too) Today is a good day!

KID 4: (bouncing too) I love riding the bus!

KID 5: (bouncing too) Me too!

KID 1: I love going to the park!

KID 2: We will be at the park soon!

MR. GREEN: (pops up from bus seat in front) I can't WAIT to go to the park!

KID 3: Hey! You are a Green!

MR. GREEN: Yes! I am Mr. Green.

KID 4: Will you go to the park with us?

MR. GREEN: Yes! I will!

KID 5: Yay! (all the kids clap)

KID 1: That is good! We can swing on the swings!

KID 2: I hope no kids are on the swings!

MR. GREEN: It is good that kids swing on the swings! We can wait.

KID 3: I hate waiting!

KID 4: I hate waiting, too!

KID 5: I hate waiting most of all!

MR. GREEN: It is good to show respect. Waiting our turn shows we respect others.

KID 1: I am glad when others wait for me.

KID 2: I do not like it, when others do NOT wait.

MR. GREEN: When we all show respect, we are all happier.

KID 3: How do we respect each other?

KID 4: I do not know!

KID 5: Can you tell us?

MR. GREEN: We show respect in different ways, to different people.

KID 1: I respect my sister, by not messing with her stuff.

KID 2: I get it! I respect my teacher, by listening.

MR. GREEN: Yes! Showing respect means you think about the feelings of others.

KID 3: I like it when others think about me.

KID 4: I like it when others think about me, too.

KID 5: Me too! That makes me feel good.

MR. GREEN: When we respect others, others learn to show respect, too.

KID 1: Yes! We waited our turn in the lunch line -

KID 2: And the next class saw us waiting. And they waited behind us!

MR. GREEN: Yes! That is showing respect. Respect is good!

KID 3: There are no fights, when we respect each other.

KID 4: It can be hard to show respect.

KID 5: Yes. It can be hard, when others don't know about respect.

MR. GREEN: Yes, it can be hard. When others don't respect you - you may feel upset.

KID 1: I get mad when others cut in line.

KID 2: I get mad when others are mean.

MR. GREEN: Yes. It feels bad, when you are not shown respect. Everyone deserves respect.

KID 3: Maybe we can help others show respect.

KID 4: Yes! That is good! We can help!

KID 5: I am glad to help!

MR. GREEN: Every time you show respect, you are teaching others.

KID 1: Hey! The bus is stopping!

KID 2: We are at the park!

MR. GREEN: This will be a fun day!

KID 3: Let's go to the swings!

KID 4: We will show respect, and wait, if others are swinging!

MR. GREEN: You are doing the right thing! Show respect to everyone, and have fun!

MEET THE GREENS: Respect!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 3 Students

Parts:

MR. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (bouncing up and down in seat) I am so happy today!

KID 2: (bouncing too) I am so happy, too!

KID 1: Today is going to be a great day!

KID 2: I love riding the bus to the park!

KID 1: I love all the fun things we do at the park!

KID 2: We will be at the park soon!

MR. GREEN: (pops up from bus seat in front) I can't WAIT to go to the park!

KID 1: Hey! You are a Green!

MR. GREEN: Yes! I am Mr. Green.

KID 2: Will you go to the park with us?

MR. GREEN: Yes! I will!

KID 1: That is good! We can swing on the swings!

KID 2: I hope there are no kids on the swings!

MR. GREEN: It is good that kids swing on the swings! If they are swinging, we will wait our turn.

KID 1: I hate waiting!

KID 2: I hate waiting, too!

MR. GREEN: It is good to show respect. Waiting our turn shows we respect others.

KID 1: I am glad when others wait for me.

KID 2: I do not like it, when others do NOT wait.

MR. GREEN: When we all show respect, we are all happier.

KID 1: How do we respect each other?

KID 2: I do not know!

MR. GREEN: We show respect in different ways, to different people.

KID 1: I respect my sister, by not messing with her stuff.

KID 2: I get it! I respect my teacher, by listening to what she is teaching us.

MR. GREEN: Yes! Showing respect means you think about the feelings of others.

KID 1: I like it when others think about me.

KID 2: I like it when others think about me, too.

MR. GREEN: When we respect others, others learn to show respect, too.

KID 1: Yes! We waited our turn in the lunch line -

KID 2: And the next class saw us waiting. And they waited behind us!

MR. GREEN: Yes! That is showing respect. Respect is good!

KID 1: There are no fights, when we respect each other.

KID 2: It can be hard to show respect, though. Especially when others don't respect you.

MR. GREEN: Yes, it can be hard. When others don't respect you - you may feel upset.

KID 1: I get mad when others cut in line.

KID 2: I get mad when others are mean.

MR. GREEN: Yes. It feels bad, when you are not shown respect. Everyone deserves respect.

KID 1: Maybe we can help others show respect.

KID 2: Yes! That is good! We can help!

MR. GREEN: Every time you show respect, you are teaching others.

KID 1: Hey! The bus is stopping!

KID 2: We are at the park!

MR. GREEN: This will be a fun day!

KID 1: Let's go to the swings!

KID 2: We will show respect, and wait, if others are swinging!

MR. GREEN: You are doing the right thing! Show respect to everyone.

KID 1: We will! Thank you, Mr. Green!

KID 2: Yes, thank you Mr. Green! This will be a fun park day!

MEET THE GREENS: Respect!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 5 Students

Parts:

MR. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (bouncing up and down in seat) I am so happy today!

KID 2: (bouncing too) I am so happy, too!

KID 3: (bouncing too) Today is going to be a great day!

KID 4: (bouncing too) I love riding the bus to the park!

KID 1: I love all the fun things we do at the park!

KID 2: We will be at the park soon!

MR. GREEN: (pops up from bus seat in front) I can't WAIT to go to the park!

KID 1: Hey! You are a Green!

MR. GREEN: Yes! I am Mr. Green.

KID 2: Will you go to the park with us?

MR. GREEN: Yes! I will!

KID 3: That is good! We can swing on the swings!

KID 4: I hope there are no kids on the swings!

MR. GREEN: It is good that kids swing on the swings! If they are swinging, we will wait our turn.

KID 1: I hate waiting!

KID 2: I hate waiting, too!

MR. GREEN: It is good to show respect. Waiting our turn shows we respect others.

KID 3: I am glad when others wait for me.

KID 4: I do not like it, when others do NOT wait.

MR. GREEN: When we all show respect, we are all happier.

KID 1: How do we respect each other?

KID 2: I do not know!

MR. GREEN: We show respect in different ways, to different people.

KID 3: I respect my sister, by not messing with her stuff.

KID 4: I get it! I respect my teacher, by listening to what she is teaching us.

MR. GREEN: Yes! Showing respect means you think about the feelings of others.

KID 1: I like it when others think about me.

KID 2: I like it when others think about me, too.

MR. GREEN: When we respect others, others learn to show respect, too.

KID 3: Yes! We waited our turn in the lunch line -

KID 4: And the next class saw us waiting. And they waited behind us!

MR. GREEN: Yes! That is showing respect. Respect is good!

KID 1: There are no fights, when we respect each other.

KID 2: It can be hard to show respect, though. Especially when others don't respect you.

MR. GREEN: Yes, it can be hard. When others don't respect you - you may feel upset.

KID 3: I get mad when others cut in line.

KID 4: I get mad when others are mean.

MR. GREEN: Yes. It feels bad, when you are not shown respect. Everyone deserves respect.

KID 1: Maybe we can help others show respect.

KID 2: Yes! That is good! We can help!

MR. GREEN: Every time you show respect, you are teaching others.

KID 3: Hey! The bus is stopping!

KID 4: We are at the park!

MR. GREEN: This will be a fun day!

KID 1: Let's go to the swings!

KID 2: We will show respect, and wait, if others are swinging!

MR. GREEN: You are doing the right thing! Show respect to everyone.

KID 3: We will! Thank you, Mr. Green!

KID 4: Yes, thank you Mr. Green! This will be a fun park day!

MEET THE GREENS: Respect!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 6 Students

Parts:

MR. GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

KID 5

Reading the Play:

KID 1: (bouncing up and down in seat) I am so happy today!

KID 2: (bouncing too) I am so happy, too!

KID 3: (bouncing too) Today is a going to be a great day!

KID 4: (bouncing too) I love riding the bus to the park!

KID 5: (bouncing too) I love all the fun things we do at the park!

KID 1: We will be at the park soon.

KID 2: I think we are almost there!

MR. GREEN: (pops up from bus seat in front) I can't WAIT to go to the park!

KID 3: Hey! You are a Green!

MR. GREEN: Yes! I am Mr. Green.

KID 4: Will you go to the park with us?

MR. GREEN: Yes! I will!

KID 5: Yay! (all the kids clap)

KID 1: That is good! We can swing on the swings!

KID 2: I hope there are no kids on the swings!

MR. GREEN: It is good that kids swing on the swings! If they are swinging, we will wait our turn.

KID 3: I hate waiting!

KID 4: I hate waiting, too!

KID 5: I hate waiting most of all!

MR. GREEN: It is good to show respect. Waiting our turn shows we respect others.

KID 1: I am glad when others wait for me.

KID 2: I do not like it, when others do NOT wait.

MR. GREEN: When we all show respect, we are all happier.

KID 3: How do we respect each other?

KID 4: I do not know!

KID 5: Can you tell us?

MR. GREEN: We show respect in different ways, to different people.

KID 1: I respect my sister, by not messing with her stuff.

KID 2: I get it! I respect my teacher, by listening to what she is teaching us.

MR. GREEN: Yes! Showing respect means you think about the feelings of others.

KID 3: I like it when others think about me.

KID 4: I like it when others think about me, too.

KID 5: Me too! That makes me feel good.

MR. GREEN: When we respect others, others learn to show respect, too.

KID 1: Yes! We waited our turn in the lunch line -

KID 2: And the next class saw us waiting. And they waited behind us!

MR. GREEN: Yes! That is showing respect. Respect is good!

KID 3: There are no fights, when we respect each other.

KID 4: It can be hard to show respect, though. Especially when others don't respect you.

KID 5: Yes. It can be hard, when others don't know about respect.

MR. GREEN: Yes, that can be hard. When others don't respect you - you may feel upset.

KID 1: I get mad when others cut in line.

KID 2: I get mad when others are mean.

MR. GREEN: Yes. It feels bad, when you are not shown respect. Everyone deserves respect.

KID 3: Maybe we can help others show respect.

KID 4: Yes! That is good! We can help!

KID 5: I am glad to help!

MR. GREEN: Every time you show respect, you are teaching others.

KID 1: Hey! The bus is stopping!

KID 2: We are at the park!

MR. GREEN: This will be a fun day!

KID 3: Let's go to the swings!

KID 4: We will show respect, and wait, if others are swinging!

MR. GREEN: You are doing the right thing! Show respect to everyone, and have fun!

Meet the Greens: RESPECT!

How are they showing respect? Check the box!

☐ Running ☐ Listening ☐ Sleeping

☐ Eating ☐ Pushing ☐ Waiting

☐ Playing Fair ☐ Breaking the Rules

☐ Sharing ☐ Fighting ☐ Swimming

I show respect by: _____

My name is : _____