

A 2024 Girl Scout Gold Award project: meet-the-greens.org

COOPERATION PACKET

Emergent Readers Script for 3	p. 2-4
Emergent Readers Script for 5	p. 5-7
Emergent Readers Script for 6	p. 8-10
Advanced Readers Script for 3	p. 11-13
Advanced Readers Script for 5	p. 14-16
Advanced Readers Script for 6	p. 17-19
Activity Sheet	p. 20

MEET THE GREENS: Cooperation!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 3 Students

---

Parts:

GIDDY GREEN

GADDY GREEN

KID 1

Reading the Play:

GIDDY GREEN: I see the kids!

GADDY GREEN: Here they come!

GIDDY GREEN: I will get the rock off the path.

GADDY GREEN: No, I will get the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: I am getting it!

GADDY GREEN: No, I will! (Both Greens push each other out of the way.)

KID 1: Hey, who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: Oh no! HIDE! (Both Greens try to hide.)

KID 1: I see you!

GADDY GREEN: No, you can't!

KID 1: Yes, I can! Who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: I am Giddy Green.

GADDY GREEN: I am Gaddy Green.

KID 1: Why are you hiding?

GIDDY GREEN: I don't know!

GADDY GREEN: We tried to clear the path for you.

GIDDY GREEN: I moved the rock.

GADDY GREEN: No, I moved the rock!

KID 1: That big rock on the path? (Kid points to the rock.) It is still on the path.

GIDDY GREEN: Well. I wanted to move the rock.

GADDY GREEN: I wanted to move the rock, too!

KID 1: You can cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: What?

GADDY GREEN: What is that word?

KID 1: When you "cooperate," you work together.

GIDDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

GADDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

KID 1: That rock looks big. It is too big for 1. It will take 2 to move the rock.

GIDDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Giddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

GADDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Gaddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

KID 1: I am telling you, you need to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Okay. We can try.

GADDY GREEN: Yes. We can try. (They both move the rock together.)

KID 1: See! You moved the rock together!

GIDDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Giddy makes big muscles with arms.)

GADDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Gaddy makes big muscles too.)

KID 1: I am proud of you!

GIDDY GREEN: I like to do things myself.

GADDY GREEN: Me too.

KID 1: But it is easier to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Big jobs are easier, when we cooperate!

GADDY GREEN: No pushing, when we cooperate!

KID 1: It is more fun when we cooperate. Thank you for moving the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: You are welcome! Now we will pick up trash!

GADDY GREEN: We will do it together!

KID 1: You will cooperate! (All three give fist-bumps to each other.)

MEET THE GREENS: Cooperation!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 5 Students

---

Parts:

GIDDY GREEN

GADDY GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

Reading the Play:

GIDDY GREEN: I see the kids!

GADDY GREEN: Here they come!

GIDDY GREEN: I will get the rock off the path.

GADDY GREEN: No, I will get the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: I am getting it!

GADDY GREEN: No, I will! (Both Greens push each other out of the way.)

KID 1: Hey, who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: Oh no! HIDE! (Both Greens try to hide.)

KID 2: We see you!

GADDY GREEN: No, you can't!

KID 3: Yes, we can! Who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: I am Giddy Green.

GADDY GREEN: I am Gaddy Green.

KID 1: Why are you hiding?

GIDDY GREEN: I don't know!

GADDY GREEN: We tried to clear the path for you.

GIDDY GREEN: I moved the rock.

GADDY GREEN: No, I moved the rock!

KID 2: That big rock on the path? (Kid points to the rock.) It is still on the path.

GIDDY GREEN: Well. I wanted to move the rock.

GADDY GREEN: I wanted to move the rock, too!

KID 3: You can cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: What?

GADDY GREEN: What is that word?

KID 1: When you "cooperate," you work together.

GIDDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

GADDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

KID 2: That rock looks big. It is too big for 1. It will take 2 to move the rock.

GIDDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Giddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

GADDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Gaddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

KID 3: We are telling you, you need to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Okay. We can try.

GADDY GREEN: Yes. We can try. (They both move the rock together.)

KID 1: See! You moved the rock together!

GIDDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Giddy makes big muscles with arms.)

GADDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Gaddy makes big muscles too.)

KID 2: We are proud of you!

GIDDY GREEN: I like to do things myself.

GADDY GREEN: Me too.

KID 3: But it is easier to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Big jobs are easier, when we cooperate!

GADDY GREEN: No pushing, when we cooperate!

KID 1: It is more fun when we cooperate. Thank you for moving the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: You are welcome! Now we will pick up trash!

GADDY GREEN: We will do it together!

KID 2: You will cooperate!

KID 3: And pick up trash! Win / win! (All give fist-bumps to each other.)

MEET THE GREENS: Cooperation!

EMERGENT READERS ~ 6 Students

---

Parts:

GIDDY GREEN

GADDY GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

GIDDY GREEN: I see the kids!

GADDY GREEN: Here they come!

GIDDY GREEN: I will get the rock off the path.

GADDY GREEN: No, I will get the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: I am getting it!

GADDY GREEN: No, I will! (Both Greens push each other out of the way.)

KID 1: Hey, who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: Oh no! HIDE! (Both Greens try to hide.)

KID 2: We see you!

GADDY GREEN: No, you can't!

KID 3 and KID 4: Yes, we can! Who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: I am Giddy Green.

GADDY GREEN: I am Gaddy Green.

KID 1: Why are you hiding?

GIDDY GREEN: I don't know!

GADDY GREEN: We tried to clear the path for you.

GIDDY GREEN: I moved the rock.

GADDY GREEN: No, I moved the rock!

KID 2: That big rock on the path? (Kid points to the rock.) It is still on the path.

GIDDY GREEN: Well. I wanted to move the rock.

GADDY GREEN: I wanted to move the rock, too!

KID 3: You can cooperate!

KID 4: That is a good idea!

GIDDY GREEN: What?

GADDY GREEN: What is that word?

KID 1: When you "cooperate," you work together.

GIDDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

GADDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

KID 2: That rock looks big. It is too big for 1. It will take 2 to move the rock.

GIDDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Giddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

GADDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Gaddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

KID 3: We are telling you, you need to cooperate!

KID 4: You can do it together!

GIDDY GREEN: Okay. We can try.

GADDY GREEN: Yes. We can try. (They both move the rock together.)

KID 1: See! You moved the rock together!

GIDDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Giddy makes big muscles with arms.)

GADDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Gaddy makes big muscles too.)

KID 2: We are proud of you!

GIDDY GREEN: I like to do things myself.

GADDY GREEN: Me too.

KID 3: But it is easier to cooperate!

KID 4: And it is better to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Big jobs are easier, when we cooperate!

GADDY GREEN: No pushing, when we cooperate!

KID 1: It is more fun when we cooperate. Thank you for moving the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: You are welcome! Now we will pick up trash!

GADDY GREEN: We will do it together!

KID 2: You will cooperate!

KID 3: And pick up trash!

KID 4: Win / win! (All give fist-bumps to each other.)

MEET THE GREENS: Cooperation!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 3 Students

---

Parts:

GIDDY GREEN

GADDY GREEN

KID 1

Reading the Play:

GIDDY GREEN: I see the kids! They are going on the nature walk!

GADDY GREEN: Here they come! We need to clear the path!

GIDDY GREEN: I will get the rock off the path.

GADDY GREEN: No, I will get the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: I am getting it!

GADDY GREEN: No, I will! (Both Greens push each other out of the way.)

KID 1: Hey, who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: Oh no! HIDE! (Both Greens try to hide.)

KID 1: I see you! Why are you trying to hide?

GADDY GREEN: You can't see us! We are hiding!

KID 1: Yes, I can see you! Who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: I am Giddy Green.

GADDY GREEN: I am Gaddy Green.

KID 1: Why are you trying to hide?

GIDDY GREEN: I don't know!

GADDY GREEN: We wanted to clear the path for you. It was a surprise!

GIDDY GREEN: I moved the rock!

GADDY GREEN: No, I moved the rock!

KID 1: That big rock on the path? (Kid points to the rock.) It is still on the path.

GIDDY GREEN: Well. I wanted to move the rock. But it was too heavy.

GADDY GREEN: I wanted to move the rock, too! But I could not lift it.

KID 1: You can cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: What?

GADDY GREEN: What is that word?

KID 1: When you "cooperate," you work together.

GIDDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

GADDY GREEN: I do not want to work together, either!

KID 1: That rock looks big. It is too big for one. It will take two to move the rock.

GIDDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Giddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

GADDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Gaddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

KID 1: I am telling you, you need to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Okay. We can try.

GADDY GREEN: Yes. We can try. (They both move the rock together.)

KID 1: See! You moved the rock together! You just needed to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Giddy makes big muscles with arms.)

GADDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Gaddy makes big muscles too.)

KID 1: I am proud of you! Sometimes it is hard to admit we need help.

GIDDY GREEN: I like to do things myself.

GADDY GREEN: Me too.

KID 1: But it is easier to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Big jobs are easier, when we cooperate!

GADDY GREEN: No pushing, when we cooperate!

KID 1: It is also more fun when we cooperate. Thank you for moving the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: You are welcome! Now we will pick up trash!

GADDY GREEN: We will do it together!

KID 1: You will cooperate! Way to go! (All three give fist-bumps to each other.)

MEET THE GREENS: Cooperation!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 5 Students

---

Parts:

GIDDY GREEN

GADDY GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

Reading the Play:

GIDDY GREEN: I see the kids! They are going on the nature walk!

GADDY GREEN: Here they come! We need to clear the path!

GIDDY GREEN: I will get the rock off the path.

GADDY GREEN: No, I will get the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: I am getting it!

GADDY GREEN: No, I will! (Both Greens push each other out of the way.)

KID 1: Hey, who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: Oh no! HIDE! (Both Greens try to hide.)

KID 2: We see you! Why are you trying to hide?

GADDY GREEN: You can't see us! We are hiding!

KID 3: Yes, we can see you! Who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: I am Giddy Green.

GADDY GREEN: I am Gaddy Green.

KID 1: Why are you trying to hide?

GIDDY GREEN: I don't know!

GADDY GREEN: We wanted to clear the path for you. It was a surprise!

GIDDY GREEN: I moved the rock!

GADDY GREEN: No, I moved the rock!

KID 2: That big rock on the path? (Kid points to the rock.) It is still on the path.

GIDDY GREEN: Well. I wanted to move the rock. But it was too heavy.

GADDY GREEN: I wanted to move the rock, too! But I could not lift it.

KID 3: You can cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: What?

GADDY GREEN: What is that word?

KID 1: When you "cooperate," you work together.

GIDDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

GADDY GREEN: I do not want to work together, either!

KID 2: That rock looks big. It is too big for one. It will take two to move the rock.

GIDDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Giddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

GADDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Gaddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

KID 3: We are telling you, you need to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Okay. We can try.

GADDY GREEN: Yes. We can try. (They both move the rock together.)

KID 1: See! You moved the rock together! You just needed to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Giddy makes big muscles with arms.)

GADDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Gaddy makes big muscles too.)

KID 2: We are proud of you! Sometimes it is hard to admit we need help.

GIDDY GREEN: I like to do things myself.

GADDY GREEN: Me too.

KID 3: But it is easier to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Big jobs are easier, when we cooperate!

GADDY GREEN: No pushing, when we cooperate!

KID 1: It is also more fun when we cooperate. Thank you for moving the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: You are welcome! Now we will pick up trash!

GADDY GREEN: We will do it together!

KID 2: You will cooperate! Way to go!

KID 3: And pick up trash! It is a win/win for all! (All give fist-bumps to each other.)

MEET THE GREENS: Cooperation!

ADVANCED READERS ~ 6 Students

---

Parts:

GIDDY GREEN

GADDY GREEN

KID 1

KID 2

KID 3

KID 4

Reading the Play:

GIDDY GREEN: I see the kids! They are going on the nature walk!

GADDY GREEN: Here they come! We need to clear the path!

GIDDY GREEN: I will get the rock off the path.

GADDY GREEN: No, I will get the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: I am getting it!

GADDY GREEN: No, I will! (Both Greens push each other out of the way.)

KID 1: Hey, who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: Oh no! HIDE! (Both Greens try to hide.)

KID 2: We see you! Why are you trying to hide?

GADDY GREEN: You can't see us! We are hiding!

KID 3 and KID 4: Yes, we can see you! Who are you?

GIDDY GREEN: I am Giddy Green.

GADDY GREEN: I am Gaddy Green.

KID 1: Why are you trying to hide?

GIDDY GREEN: I don't know!

GADDY GREEN: We wanted to clear the path for you. It was a surprise!

GIDDY GREEN: I moved the rock!

GADDY GREEN: No, I moved the rock!

KID 2: That big rock on the path? (Kid points to the rock.) It is still on the path.

GIDDY GREEN: Well. I wanted to move the rock. But it was too heavy.

GADDY GREEN: I wanted to move the rock, too! But I could not lift it.

KID 3: You can cooperate!

KID 4: That is a good idea! That will work!

GIDDY GREEN: What?

GADDY GREEN: What is that word?

KID 1: When you "cooperate," you work together.

GIDDY GREEN: I do not want to work together!

GADDY GREEN: I do not want to work together, either!

KID 2: That rock looks big. It is too big for one. It will take two to move the rock.

GIDDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Giddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

GADDY GREEN: I can move the rock! (Gaddy tries to move the rock, but he cannot.)

KID 3: We are telling you, you need to cooperate!

KID 4: You can do it together!

GIDDY GREEN: Okay. We can try.

GADDY GREEN: Yes. We can try. (They both move the rock together.)

KID 1: See! You moved the rock together! You just needed to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Giddy makes big muscles with arms.)

GADDY GREEN: We did move the rock! (Gaddy makes big muscles too.)

KID 2: We are proud of you! Sometimes it is hard to admit we need help.

GIDDY GREEN: I like to do things myself.

GADDY GREEN: Me too.

KID 3: But it is easier to cooperate!

KID 4: And it is better to cooperate!

GIDDY GREEN: Big jobs are easier, when we cooperate!

GADDY GREEN: No pushing, when we cooperate!

KID 1: It is also more fun when we cooperate. Thank you for moving the rock!

GIDDY GREEN: You are welcome! Now we will pick up trash!

GADDY GREEN: We will do it together!

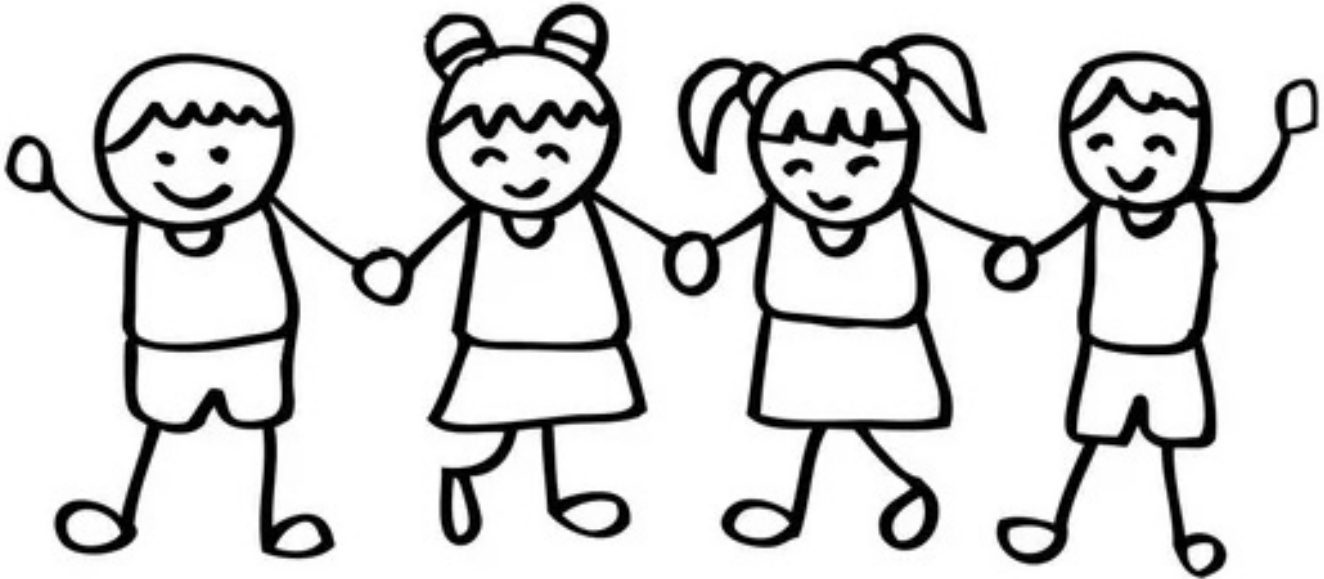

KID 2: You will cooperate! Way to go!

KID 3: And pick up trash!

KID 4: It is a win/win for everyone! (All give fist-bumps to each other.)

Meet the Greens: COOPERATION

Color the kids below. They are ready to cooperate!

I cooperate at school when I: _____

_____
_____.

I cooperate at home when I: _____

_____
_____.

My name is : _____